

International Tax

KPMG LLP's (KPMG) International Tax practice understands tax and trade regulations and changing business conditions in jurisdictions across the world to support clients in international and cross-border activities.

We navigate the complexity of international tax laws (including that relating to ongoing U.S. and global tax reform) for our clients in connection with their global business activities and initiatives. The majority of our work is consulting based and includes:

Specialty groups

International Tax—help multinational organizations identify tax opportunities and avoid pitfalls in doing business globally

Trade & Customs Services—focus on regulations associated with the import and export of goods and services

Preferred majors

Master's degree in accounting or taxation

Bachelor's degree in non-150 credit hour states only

JD or JD/LLM in taxation

Coursework in information systems, computer science, science, and/or data and analytics a plus

CPA eligible—150 hours
